And there you have it! For the month of December, there will be a temporary change in net manager responsibilities. I will be going out of town for Christmas, and over New Year's, and will not be able to keep up with the nets while I am away. For the month of December, KT4JR will be taking over as the temporary net manager, and I will resume net manager responsibilities in January, when I get back. Thank you KT4JR! And thank you to all of the net controls for you're continued services. A special thanks to KJ4CVK for taking up some extra nets recently. That is all for this month! Happy Thanksgiving to everyone and 73 till next time!
